What are the benefits of using an Independent Social Worker for Assessments & Reviews?

Social Workers who have mature specialist knowledge and can apply social work values with clarity and a clear thinking approach are an invaluable resource.

The benefits of using an independent Social Worker is that they:

- can be totally objective and neutral
- are free from bureaucratic constraints
- have the space to focus on the client or carer without interruption
- are flexible and focussed
- can be a cost effective solution in terms of time and task
- can be delivered in agreed time frames

All Social Workers are qualified with social work practitioner experience in their specific field, are registered with the GSCC, abide by the GSCC code of practice, are members of BASW and have full professional indemnity insurance. Criminal records checks are available as required. aim2aim is registered under the Data Protection Act 1998.
